RULES ON FEES PAID BY THE STUDENTS OF THE DSW UNIVERSITY OF LOWER SILESIA IN WROCLAW

§1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. These Regulations set out the rules for the payment of fees by students starting in the academic year 2024/2025 and in the years to come.
2. The amount of fees, the schedule of their payment and the list of additional fees is determined for each admission procedure by the Senate of the DSW University of Lower Silesia in Wroclaw and announced in the Table of Fees for educational services for Students constituting Appendix 1 to these Regulations, hereinafter referred to as the Table of Fees.
3. Fees are paid by bank transfer to the University's bank account. The date of payment is the date the funds are received in the University bank account.
4. The tasks of the Chancellor set forth in these Regulations may be assigned to other persons based on the granted power of attorney.

§2

TUITION

1. The term "tuition" as used in these Regulations refers to fees associated with the provision of educational services in connection with education at the full-time and part-time studies.
2. The University guarantees a fixed tuition rate throughout the study period.
3. The University has two systems for paying tuition fees:
  - a. even tuition installments - for students;
  - b. sliding scale tuition - for students, excluding foreigners studying under the rules other than those in force for Polish citizens and participant of studies co-financed by the European Union.
4. Tuition fees are paid by the student in the selected system as specified in the Agreement for the provision of higher education services at the DSW University of Lower Silesia in Wroclaw (hereinafter referred to as: Agreement). The declared payment system is valid until the end of the study, subject to §2.5.
5. Changing the tuition payment system requires submitting a declaration of change, signed by both the University and the student and is only possible up to the date of the first payment according to the tuition payment schedule in accordance with §3.5 of the Agreement applicable to the student.
6. Tuition fees are paid by the student in the selected number of installments specified in the Agreement. The basic number of installments per academic year is 10 , which is the basis for calculating the price of education services. Tuition fees may also be paid in:
  - a. 1 installment (annual fee),
  - b. 2 installments (semester fee) ,
  - c. 12 installments (monthly fee) , subject to §2.11.
7. Changing the number of installments in a given semester requires a written declaration and is only possible until the following dates:
  - a. 15 October for fees paid in the winter semester,
  - b. 15 February for fees paid in the summer semester.
8. In particularly justified cases, at the written and reasoned request of the student, the Chancellor may change the mode of paying tuition fees on the basis of the declaration submitted by the student outside the deadlines mentioned in §2.7.
9. In the event of a change in the form, faculty or type of study, the amount of tuition will be changed in accordance with the established form, type or faculty.
10. The provisions of §2.5, do not apply to foreigners studying under rules other than those applicable to Polish citizens.
11. In the case of four-semester, six-semester, seven-semester and ten-semester studies, tuition payments in 12 installments are not available in the final year of study. In this case, the basic mode of tuition payment applies, i.e. in 10 installments, unless the student has chosen to pay tuition in 1 or 2 installments. In the last semester of a seven-semester course, the basic mode of tuition payment applies, i.e. in 5 installments unless the student has chosen to pay tuition in semester installments.

§3

TRANSFER TO A HIGHER SEMESTER

1. A student admitted to the first semester of study may apply for transfer to a higher semester in accordance with the applicable regulations and the Regulations of the DSW University of Lower Silesia in Wroclaw.
2. In the case of transfer to a higher semester, the student pays tuition fees for the year of study to which they are transferred, in accordance with the table contained in § 3.6 of the Agreement applicable to the student, and fees associated with the implementation of study program discrepancies in accordance with the with the table contained in § 3.10 of the Agreement applicable to the student.

§4

RESUMPTION OF STUDIES, REPEATING A COURSE, REPEATING A SEMESTER, ABSENCE LEAVE FROM ATTENDING CLASSES, DIFFERENT SPECIALIZATION, PROGRAM DISCREPANCIES, OPTIONAL COURSES, INDIVIDUAL STUDY PLAN AND STUDY PROGRAM

1. A student may apply for resumption of studies only after prior settlement of fees with the University.
2. A student resuming studies after being removed from the list of students pays their tuition fees for the year of study in which they continue to study, in accordance with the table contained in §3.6 of the Agreement applicable to the student.
3. If permission is granted for a leave of absence from attending classes during the semester, the student is required to pay tuition in proportion to the period of study in which they attended classes. If a student has paid tuition for a semester or year in advance, they will receive a refund from the University of the portion of the tuition fee paid in advance for the unused period of study.
4. A student starting a new specialization, making up study program discrepancies, pursuing optional subjects or repeating a course pays the applicable tuition fees and an additional fee indicated in the table contained in §3.10 of the Agreement applicable to the student.
5. A student directed to repeat a semester pays their tuition fees at the full standard tuition rate applicable to the repeated semester, in accordance with §3.6 of the Agreement applicable to the student. In the case of passing at least one course from the semester for which the student was directed to repeat, the amount of tuition will be reduced by 30% of the applicable tuition for the semester of study. In the case of repeating the last semester of study, where only the diploma seminar is repeated, the amount of tuition fees will be reduced to the amount of PLN 1250 in accordance with the Agreement applicable to the student.
6. In the case of the granting of an individual study program that results in a shortened course of study, while maintaining the implementation of the study program according to the rules set forth in § 6.2 of the University Regulations, the student is obliged to pay the tuition fees for the selected course of study, covering the entire study cycle, in accordance with the Agreement applicable to the student.

  - a. the amount of tuition is the value given in the table of fees for a given academic year expressed in EUR, but not less than the value expressed in PLN in annual fee or two equal semester installments in each year of study, in accordance with the Agreement for educational services, but only in the guaranteed even tuition installments system,
  - b. one-time adaptation fee is 100 EUR, but not less than 400 PLN and is payable at the time of submitting the admission documents,
  - c. These students are not eligible for promotions on tuition and adaptation fees, with exceptions specified in the promotion regulations,
  - d. These students are not eligible for promotions regarding the registration fee of 20 EUR, but not less than 85 PLN, with exceptions specified in the promotion regulations.

FEEES OTHER THAN TUITION

1. The University charges fees for the issuance of electronic ID cards, diplomas and their duplicates in accordance with the current regulation of the Minister of Higher Education on studies, subject to §6.3. The amounts of these fees are indicated in the Agreement applicable to the student.
2. The University also charges a fee for a written notice sent by registered mail indicated in §3.10 of the Agreement applicable to the student upon termination of the Agreement under the terms and conditions set forth therein.

3. Students referred to study abroad pay fees determined individually by the Chancellor.

FEES FOR FAILURE TO MEET STUDENT OBLIGATIONS ON TIME

1. If tuition fees are paid after the due date as specified in the tuition payment schedule, statutory interest will be charged on the overdue amount from the day following the due date of the tuition until the overdue amount is paid in full.
2. In the case of payment of tuition fees after the deadline specified in the tuition payment schedule, the student removed from the list of students will be charged statutory interest, calculated on the overdue amount for each day of delay until the date of repayment of the debt.
3. In the case of keeping books borrowed from the library beyond the prescribed period, the University charges fees in the amount shown in the table contained in §3.10 of the Agreement applicable to the student.

OVERDUE FEES

1. In particularly justified cases, at the written and reasoned request of the student, it is possible to defer the payment of tuition fees with the approval of the Chancellor.
2. If the fees are not paid within the specified period, the Chancellor requests the Rector or the person authorized to make a decision to remove a student from the list of students due to failure to pay the fees. The student has the right to appeal against the issued decision in accordance with the procedures set forth in the University Regulations and in accordance with applicable laws. If the student has overdue tuition fees, regardless of the consequences prescribed in the University Regulations, the University reserves the right to take action against the student as provided by law to collect the debt.

RESIGNATION AND REMOVAL FROM THE LIST OF STUDENTS DURING THE COURSE OF STUDIES

1. If the student resigns from studies in writing (with their own signature) or is removed for any other reason, the student is obliged to pay tuition fees in proportion to the used period of study.
2. If the student resigns after the end of classes in a given semester, i.e. after 15 February and 15 June, the student is obliged to pay for that semester.
3. If a student paid tuition fees for a semester or a year in advance and resigns from studies or is removed for any reason, they will receive a refund from the University of the portion of the tuition fee paid in advance for the unused period of study. Refunds are made upon written request by the student, including a current bank account number.
4. The used period of study is calculated in days. The used period of study is counted in the winter semester from 1 October to 14 February, and in the summer semester from 15 February to 30 June. The used period of study is counted up to the day preceding the date of submitting written resignation from studies, removal from the list of students, application for leave of absence from classes. Tuition fees due for the entire semester are conditioned on the payment system selected by the student in accordance with § 3.6 of the Agreement applicable to the student.
5. Tuition for the used period of study is calculated as follows:

$$\text{Czesne za okres wykorzystany} = \frac{\text{czesne za miesiac, w ktorym zlozono rezygnacje}}{\text{liczba dni w danym miesiacu, w ktorym jest rezygnacja}} \times \text{okres wykorzystany do dnia poprzedzajacego date zlozenia rezygnacji ze studiow}$$

(Tuition for the period used = tuition for the month in which the resignation was submitted / number of days of the month in which the resignation was submitted x the period used up to the day preceding the date of resignation from the studies)

6. Removal from the list of students may take place for reasons specified in the University Regulations.

§10

FINAL SETTLEMENT WITH THE UNIVERSITY

1. A student who is removed from the list of students is obliged to settle all outstanding payments with the University within 30 days from the removal.
2. The graduating student is obliged to settle all outstanding payments with the University no later than the date of the thesis defense.
